

Abstract

Condensation of compounds containing active methylene group with aromatic aldehyde (piperonal) in the presence of BaO on KF without a solvent under microwave irradiation is an efficient synthetic approach to methysticin and derivatives of kavalactones (4-methoxy-6-styryl-pyran-2-ones)